AFL South Coast Junior Under 16's All Australian

The junior season kicks off this weekend but that hasn't stopped Figtree Junior Player - Ashleigh Barlow from going from strength to strength in her Sydney Swans Academy season. Barlow was named in the Under 16 All- Australian Team back line during the 2024 Marsh AFL National Championships.

AFL Head of Talent Pathways, Grant Williams, said in an interview with afl.com: "The Marsh AFL National Championships are the highest standard of representative state and territory football for aspiring talented footballers.

"The AFL is committed to providing the most talented young footballers with a pathways system that provides them with an opportunity to be the best they can be.

"The Championships feature the best young players from across the country and provide these players the chance to showcase their talent to a national audience."

Competition Coordinator - Jessica Markut was excited to see Barlow's success stating "It's exciting to see the talent we have in the South Coast recognised at a National Level."

"We are fortunate to have so much talent down here, with a number of players in the Swans and Giants Academies and it's encouraging to see them recognised in their talent pathway while also committing to their club locally."

On top of her selection to the Under 16 All Australian side, Barlow was also named as one of the teams ten Most Valuable Players and the only MVP from NSW.

Congratulations to Ashleigh Barlow for her selection and we wish her continued success in 2024.
